My darling Joe - What a mean little letter you wrote me to day ou plutôt yesterday but it was far better than nothing cherie. It is raining to day and it makes one feel awfully blue Ther Mary et moi ran out dirrectly after breakfast and went for a long walk in the contry on the falaises behind St Adresse we did not matter with poor little Loulou, do you miss her much darling? How awfully swell you are going to turn out that printed dress will be very pretty with pink. Decidedly little Moulin is very lucky to meet you so often quel heu=reux hazard is it not. Well I love to tell the truth I never did believe much about that ring I did not know what to believe yet perhaps I do not know yet about it. You must not mind that darling for what do you expect a person to believe when you tell them about a dozen different storys - I am sure Ma=mie looked very good this morning when she read your letter I told her to profit of the lesson not to be so jealous or at least not show it!! You happy girl to go and see Judic last night I hope you had a lovely time was there any body that you knew there?

Please give my love to your mother and Dora. Your loving

Leo.
